

I beg of you, PLEASE do not impose the federal privacy laws over those of the state of Indiana. The Indiana statute has been very, very successful. Given that we no longer have constant mealtime interruptions, one might even say that it is "family friendly". Thank you.